

SR4-3-105 Action on House legislation.

- (1) When a piece of House legislation is received by the Senate with a transmittal letter informing the Senate that it has passed the House, the presiding officer shall:
  - (a) have the legislation read for the first time; and
  - (b) refer it to the Senate Rules Committee.
- (2) Action on House legislation is the same as for Senate legislation.